

Nixon Denies Wrongdoing In Stirring Address; Outlines Entire Financial Life; Lays Future Before GOP Officials

CLEVELAND (AP)—GOP National Chairman Arthur E. Summerfield said today, "I am certain that Sen. Richard Nixon will remain the Republican candidate for vice president."

Summerfield made this statement in reply to a reporter's question at a news conference.

Summerfield said that judging from the response to Nixon's speech last night "the smear attack on Sen. Nixon has backfired. This is the turning point of the 1952 campaign."

He said he had talked with both Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, the party's presidential candidate, and Nixon by telephone this morning. Nixon, he said, will meet with Gen. Eisenhower at 9:30 p.m. today in Wheeling, W. Va.

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Sen. Richard M. Nixon carried his fight for political life to a nationwide audience last night, and then moved on to Montana today before a decisive meeting with Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower.

The young GOP vice presidential nominee rested his fate in an unprecedented TV-radio appeal to the American public. He left the question of his removal from the Republican ticket squarely up to the party's National Committee.

Nixon said he plans to meet Gen. Eisenhower "somewhere in West Virginia." The time and place probably will be set after Nixon keeps his speaking appointment in Missoula. Nixon interrupted his Western campaign tour to return to Los Angeles and make his plea to the nation.

He Is Pleased

He, in a telegram from Cleveland after Nixon's speech, labelled it "magnificent" and asked to see his running mate "at once."

A flood of telegrams and phone calls followed Nixon's dramatic offer to submit the make or break decision to the National Committee.

"Wire and write the Republican National Committee whether you think I should stay or whether I should get off," Nixon exhorted.

Denies Wrongdoing

Denying that he personally received any of the money raised for miscellaneous expenses, expenses which he said he did not want charged to the federal government, Nixon said that an independent audit had been made by Price Waterhouse and Co. firm, and the legal opinion was by Gibson, Dunn and Crutcher, lawyers in Los Angeles, the biggest law firm, and incidentally one of the best ones in Los Angeles.

"I am proud to report to you tonight that this audit and this legal opinion is being forwarded to General Eisenhower, and I would like to read to you the opinion that was prepared by Gibson, Dunn and Crutcher, based on all the pertinent laws and statutes, together with the audit report prepared by the certified public accountants."

"It is our conclusion that Senator Nixon did not obtain any financial gain from the collection and disbursement of the funds by Dana Smith; that Senator Nixon did not violate any Federal or State law by reason of the operation of the fund, and that neither the portion of the fund paid by Dana Smith directly to third persons, nor the portion paid to Senator Nixon, to reimburse him for office expenses, constituted income in a sense which was either reportable or taxable as income under income tax laws. Signed Gibson, Dunn and Crutcher, by Almo H. Condon."

Wife Not On Payroll

Nixon said that neither his wife nor any other member of his family or any relative was on his or the federal payroll. Then he added:

"Let me say, incidentally, that my opponent, my opposite number for the Vice Presidency of the Democratic ticket, does have his wife on his payroll and has had her on his payroll for the past 10 years. Now just let me say this. That is his business, and I am not critical of him for doing that. You will have to pass judgment on that particular point, but I have never done that for this reason."

"I have found that there are so many deserving stenographers and secretaries in Washington that needed the work that I just didn't feel it was right to put my wife on the payroll."

Outlines Financial Life

Nixon then outlined his entire financial life as follows:

"I was born in 1913. Our family was one of modest circumstances, and most of my early life was spent in a store, out in East Whittier. It was a grocery store, one of those family enterprises."

"The only reason we were able to make it go was because my mother and dad had five boys, and all we worked in the store. I worked my way through college and, to a great extent, through law school. And then, in 1940, probably the best thing that ever happened to me happened. I married Pat, who is sitting over here."

"We had a rather difficult time, after we were married, like so many of the young couples who might be listening to us. I practiced law. She continued to teach school."

"Then, in 1942, I went into the service. Let me say that my service record was not a particularly unusual one. I went to the South Pacific. I guess I'm entitled to a couple of battle stars. I got a couple of letters of commendation. But I was just there when the bombs were falling."

"And then I returned to the United States, and in 1946, I ran for the Congress. When we came out of the war, Pat and I—Pat during the war had worked as a stenographer, and in a bank, and as an economist for a Government agency—and when we came out, the total of our savings, from both my law practice, her teaching, and all the time that I was in the war, the total for that entire period was just a little less than $10,000—every cent of that, incidentally, was in Government bonds. Well, that's where we start, when I go into politics."

Lists His Earnings

"Now, whatever I earned since I went into politics. Well, here it is. I jotted it down. Let me read the notes."

"First of all I have had my salary as a Congressman and as a Senator."

"Second, I have received a total in this past six years of $1600 from estates which were in my law firm at the time that I severed my connection with it. And, incidentally, as I said before, I have not engaged in any legal practice, and have not accepted any fees from business that came into the firm after I went into politics."

Small Inheritances

"I have made an average of approximately $1500 a year from non-political speaking engagements and lectures."

"And then, fortunately, we have inherited a little money. Pat sold her interest in her father's estate for $3000, and I inherited $1500 from my grandfather. We lived rather modestly."

"For four years we lived in an apartment in (Park Fairfax) Alexandria, Va. The rent was $80 a month. And we saved for the time that we could buy a house. Now, that was what we took in."

"What did we do with this money? What do we have today to show for it? This will surprise you, because it is so little, I suppose as standards generally go of people in public life."

"First of all, we've got a house in Washington, which cost $41,000 and on which we owe $20,000. We have a house in Whittier, Calif., which cost $13,000, and on which we owe $3,000. My folks are living there at present."

Have No Stocks Or Bonds

"I have just $4,000 in life insurance, plus my GI policy, which I have never been able to convert, and which will run out in two years."

"I have no life insurance whatever on Pat. I have no life insurance on our two youngsters, Patricia and Julie."

"I own a 1950 Oldsmobile car. We have our furniture. We have no stocks and bonds of any type. We have no interest of any kind, direct or indirect, in any business. Now, that is what we have."

"Well, in addition to the mortgage, the $20,000 mortgage on the house (Continued on Page 4)

Car, Truck Collide Near New Oxford

An automobile operated by Walter C. Gaumer, 48, of Peoria, Ill., and a truck driven by Clair W. Rohrbaugh, 31, of 211 Lincolnway East, New Oxford, collided at 3:45 p.m. Tuesday on the Lincoln Highway a mile west of New Oxford, according to state police of the Gettysburg substation.

Police said Rohrbaugh backed out of a private driveway onto the berm of the north side of the road and then cut across to the south side of the highway in the path of Gaumer's car. Damage to the trucks was estimated at $75 and to the automobile at $100. No one was injured.

GIRL SCOUTS ASKED TO HELP VOTING MOTHERS

Girl Scouts of Adams County will serve as "baby sitters" on Election Day so that mothers of young children who otherwise could not leave them, will be able to go to the polls to vote, if a request of the National Girl Scout Council is followed.

The request was read at a meeting of the Adams County Girl Scout Council Tuesday night in the Girl Scout headquarters, First National Bank building, and referred to troop leaders.

Mrs. Raymond F. Sheely, president of the council, presided. It was decided to hold the dinner meeting for the "kickoff" of the annual Girl Scout financial campaign in the Community Hall at Fairfield, on either October 21 or 23. Members of the Fairfield Firemen's Auxiliary will serve the meal. The drive will take place the last week of October. The dinner will be for all adult leaders, committee members, workers and others interested in Girl Scouting.

Announcement also was made of a Girl Scout leaders' meeting to be held at Wilson College, Chambersburg, September 30, from 10:45 a.m. to 3:45 p.m. and all board and committee members of Adams County were urged to attend.

Plan Window Displays

Mrs. Carol Arter, Littlestown, camp chairman, reported on her stay at Camp Edith May in New York state July 23 to August 2, where she took a course of training in camp direction. Mrs. Arter will present a more complete report at a Leaders' Club meeting to be held October 9 at Sheffer's Park.

The council discussed playing window displays during Girl Scout Week, the last week of October, and divided the county into three groups. Gettysburg troops will compete for prizes of $5 and $2.50 in one division; Littlestown and Fairfield, in another, and other county Girl Scout troops in Biglerville, New Oxford, York Springs, East Berlin, Abbotstown and other communities in a third group.

Seven Injured In Accident Near York

Seven persons were injured in a collision shortly before 11 o'clock Tuesday night on the East Berlin road, about five miles west of York.

Treated at York hospital were Ralph Linebaugh, 37, of East Berlin, said to be one of the drivers, cuts of the face; his wife, Clara, 32, treated for shock; and their two children, Leroy, 5, cuts of the face, and Larry, 10, possible back injury.

Mrs. June Frey, 20, of Gladfelters, fractured wrist, and Ruth Ann Strausbaugh, 15, also of Gladfelters, fractured clavicle. It was reported at the hospital that they were passengers in the Linebaugh car.

The only occupant of the other car reported treated at the hospital was John Robert Sutherland, 19, of York R. 8, who suffered cuts of the neck. He was identified as a passenger. The name of the driver was not available.

State police are investigating.

College Communion Service This Evening

The 21st annual Communion service for the Gettysburg College "family" will be held this evening at 7:30 o'clock in Christ Lutheran Church for students and faculty members.

The service will be conducted by the pastor, the Rev. Wallace E. Fisher, assisted by these members of the faculty: Dr. Harold Dunkelberger, Dr. Robert Fortenbaugh, Parker B. Wagnild and Dr. W. C. Waltemyer. Ushers will be supplied by the Student Christian Association.

ENTERS TEMPLE UNIVERSITY

Mr. and Mrs. John H. Basehore, E. Middle St., returned Tuesday night from Philadelphia. Their son, John W. Basehore, who accompanied them to Philadelphia, entered Temple University School of Business Administration as a member of the freshman class. He will specialize in radio and journalism courses. Mr. and Mrs. Basehore and son were guests Sunday and Monday of Mrs. Basehore's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Kimes, of Philadelphia.

TRUSTEE PAYS BANK $161,460 IN INDUCTIVE CASE WIND-UP

Another concluding step in the reorganization of the Inductive Equipment Corporation was accomplished Tuesday when the trustee in reorganization, J. W. Hennessey, York, paid $161,460 to the Gettysburg National Bank as trustee for the holders of bonds secured by a mortgage on the Inductive plant and equipment at Quarry Park.

With the presentation of the certified check by the trustee, the bank satisfied the mortgage against Inductive Equipment thus freeing the plant and equipment of the lien against it.

The $161,460 paid by Hennessey to the bank is 90 per cent of the $179,400 of outstanding bonds, according to records on file in the Inductive Equipment case. The bank will pay the bondholders 85 per cent of the par value of their bonds upon demand. The five per cent difference goes for bank's and attorney's fees. Bank officials said today they will redeem the bonds upon presentation to the bank. Some of the bonds were presented today for redemption.

Payment of the amount satisfied that portion of the order handed down by Judge Albert L. Watson, in U. S. District Court August 15, Hennessey said today. The next step on the part of the trustee will be payment of other claims against the approximately $219,000 paid under the reorganization plan by Essex Wire Corporation.

With the clearing of the title to the property for Inductive Equipment, the corporation, under the reorganization will be operated as a wholly owned subsidiary of Essex Wire.

Next September 30th, in about 3,000 cities, towns and villages throughout the United States and Canada, congregations from approximately 100 different denominations will parade to neighborhood community centers to join in celebration ceremonies hailing the publication of a Book—the Revised Standard Version of the Bible.

After 15 years of labor by scholars representing 40 denominations, the completion of the Revised Standard Version is one of the most significant religious events since the publication of the King James Version 341 years ago.

While the authorized English and American revisions of the King James Version in 1881 and 1901 corrected many of the errors and inaccuracies brought to light with the passing centuries, the veritable flood of archaeological and manuscript discoveries during the past 60 years made a new revision necessary.

In 1929, a committee appointed by the International Council of Religious Education was authorized to undertake the task of revision "in the light of the results of modern scholarship . . . to be designed for use in public and private worship and to be in the direction of the simple classic style of the King James Version." ICRE has since become the Division of Christian Education of the National Council of Churches of Christ in the U.S.A., an organization constituted by 29 Protestant and Eastern Orthodox communions with more than 32,000,000 church members.

New knowledge, discovered since the King James Version and its successors were prepared, revealed that that 5,000 errors, resulting from the poor texts available to early translators.

It also was found that old Greek was really two separate languages, the classical of the (Continued on Page 2)

Withdraw Charge Of Stealing Cornet

A charge of larceny filed by Mrs. Gertrude Cullison, 211 S. Washington St. against Edward Noel, Third St., McSherrystown, for the alleged theft on August 29 of a cornet owned by her daughter, Susan, was withdrawn before Justice of the Peace Robert P. Snyder Tuesday afternoon. The costs were placed against the defendant.

Noel claimed that he had purchased the band instrument from an itinerant in a Gettysburg tap room for $10, and when he learned that the cornet had been reported stolen from the Cullison home, he returned it to a borough police officer here, who turned it over to Mrs. Cullison. He said a man he met in the tap room told him he wanted to sell the instrument for $20 and he went to Pittsburgh.

CLUB MEMBERS CONVENE AT Y

A "refresher course" was held by members of Sororist Clubs from Gettysburg, Hanover, York, Carlisle and Chambersburg at a dinner meeting Tuesday evening at 7 o'clock at the YWCA building. Mrs. Guyon E. Buehler, a past president, presided. As chairman of the program committee, which planned the meeting, she also served as toastmistress. She introduced Mrs. Donald E. Myers, president of the Gettysburg Club, who extended greetings to the visitors and presented the challenge for the evening.

Mrs. Buehler also served as moderator for an informal discussion of projects and problems of the various clubs, with Mrs. Mary Irving, president of the Hanover Club; Mrs. Pauline Spangler, president of the York Club; Miss Pauline Garver, president of the Carlisle Club, and Mrs. Jessie Toeh, vice president of the Chambersburg Club, presenting several subjects for discussion, most of which pertained to the interpretation of the by-laws.

Mrs. George F. Eberhart, Chambersburg St., was piano accompanist for group singing led by Mrs. D. (Continued on Page 2)

Boy Strikes Car; Suffers Injuries

Thomas P. Henninger, five-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilmer A. Henninger, Railroad St., suffered a cut of the hand and bruises Tuesday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock when the child allegedly darted into Baltimore St. at Lincoln Sq. and ran into the front fender of a moving car.

The car was operated by F. A. Leyden, Kenmore, N. Y., according to a borough police report. Attorney Edward B. Bullett, an eye witness to the accident, said the youngster, accompanied by Mary Ann Henninger, an older sister, and Joan Neary, N. Stratton St., was returning from school when he left the two girls and darted into the street. Leyden stopped immediately, but the child, insisting he was unhurt, left the scene with the girls shortly after the accident. He suffered a cut hand, but said he had no other injury Monday. This morning he complained of soreness about his body, but went to school. He was to be examined by a physician this afternoon.

DEAN WEIGLE OF YALE TO RECEIVE PA. WEEK AWARD IN LITTLESTOWN

The Rev. Dr. Luther A. Weigle, dean emeritus of the Yale Divinity School, who will receive the Pennsylvania Ambassador Award during the 1952 Pennsylvania Week observance, will come to Littlestown to be presented the award. It was announced at a meeting of the directors and committee chairman of the Littlestown Chamber of Commerce Monday morning at Banker's Restaurant.

The Rev. Dr. Weigle was born in the present parsonage of St. Paul's Lutheran Church, West King St., and was reared in the community. He is returning to his native town to have the honor of receiving the Pennsylvania Ambassador Award for his outstanding work done as chairman of the committee on the translation of the revised standard version of the Bible.

Plans were discussed for the local observance of Pennsylvania Week, which will be concentrated on the Pennsylvania Ambassador Award.

DONATE $100 TO MOOSE WOMEN TO AID NURSES

The Loyal Order of the Moose donated $100 to the Women of the Moose for their student-nurse fund, it was announced at a meeting of the women Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock at the Moose Home, York St. The fund enables the organization to help deserving students through nursing school. The group is now sponsoring two young women.

The Tuesday meeting featured Publicity Night chapter during which Mrs. Virginia Lauer discussed the various phases of publicity in connection with different organizations. The gift, donated by Mrs. Mary Fridinger towards the publicity project, was won by Mrs. Rose Anzenruber.

It was announced that the women will assist at the card party and dance to be held at the Moose Home by the Hospital Auxiliary during the afternoon and evening of October 9.

Miss Martha Strasbaugh will deliver Lincoln's "Gettysburg Address," during the Pennsylvania Day celebration to be held by the Harrisburg Chapter October 12. The local chapter will present a pageant based on the Lincoln theme.

Senior regent, Mrs. Rosetta Johnson, presided at the meeting which had an attendance of 36 members. Three new members were initiated. Additional awards were presented to Miss Strasbaugh and to Mrs. Lauer. A public card party will be held at the Moose Home Monday evening at 8 o'clock.

TV Helps To Locate Crash Victim's Family

A television broadcast helped locate local relatives of Roy Joseph Lay, 25, who was fatally injured last Sunday in an automobile accident in Fullerton, Calif.

At the time of the crash, authorities there could learn only that Lay had formerly lived in York. A TV broadcast concerning the search for the man's relations was seen by a person who knew Lay's cousin at Duncannon. With the help of state police here Mrs. Stella Engle Lay, Biglerville R. 1, the mother of the victim, was located. Arrangements have been made to bring the body here for services and interment.

In addition to the mother, these brothers and sisters survive: Frederick McConnell, New York; Charles Lay, address unknown; Miss Ruth Lay, Duncannon, and Miss Florence Lay, Schuylkill Haven. The funeral arrangements are incomplete.

Birth Announcements

Sons were born this morning at the Warner Hospital to Mr. and Mrs. Edward Rexroth, Littlestown, and Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Miller, Idaville.

Sons were born at the hospital Tuesday evening to Mr. and Mrs. Donald Weaver, 17 Chambersburg St., and Mr. and Mrs. G. Howard Koons, Littlestown.

NEW EPISCOPAL RECTOR TALKS TO EXCHANGITES

"Freedom is God-given, and the only way we can retain our freedom is through the true God," the Rev. Martin H. Knudsen, rector of the Prince of Peace Episcopal Church, declared, in a talk before the Exchange Club at the latter's weekly dinner meeting at Banker's Restaurant Tuesday night.

"Today we are concerned that we will lose our freedom," he said. "We fear communism, we fear the loss of freedom through economic disaster and we fear an atomic destruction of the world. In our attempt to keep our freedom we consider desperate measures, but the only real way is through God."

"Freedom is a thing which is peculiar to the Western World. The nations of Asia are catching on but have only a weak conception of what freedom means. The Reds conceive it as only a faint shadow."

Goodness A By-Product

"We in America have the highest standard of living in the world. Why did it develop among the so-called western nations? Because we are of a culture in America and Europe which has lived long with God. Who has led us so we have been able to exploit nature. We did not do this of ourselves. Our advantages came to us through God, and one of them was freedom. In a sense, however, we are slaves, either to God, to ourselves or to some other influence. By being a slave to God, however, we enjoy the perfect freedom."

OFFER SCOUTS NATURE COURSE

Final arrangements for the annual "Jack Frost" nature course of Coneago Boy Scout district were completed Tuesday night at a session of scout leaders at Hanover. Emerson W. Mange, district training chairman, chaired the meeting.

The event will be held Saturday and Sunday, October 4-5, at Camp Coneago, Dick's Dam. William O. Randall, district commissioner, will serve as camp director.

The program will include: Saturday, 1 to 2 p.m., registration in charge of Charles Harris, district field executive; 2 to 4 p.m., setting up camp and leaf collections in charge of Lester Hull, scoutmaster Troop 105, St. Matthew's Lutheran Church; 4 to 6 p.m., supper; 8 p.m., movies in charge of Mange; star study, Harris, and 10:30 p.m., taps.

Sunday, 7 to 9 a.m., breakfast; 9 a.m., devotion services in charge of Raleigh C. Redding, teacher at St. Matthew's Lutheran Sunday School in Hanover. Catholic scouts will attend mass in New Oxford; 10:15 a.m., tree hike; 11:30 to 1:30 p.m., dinner; 2 to 3 p.m., flower hike, and 4 p.m., closing ceremonies.

All camping will be done on a patrol basis, with each unit furnishing its own tents, bedding and food.

Paul Aumen, district advancement chairman, announced a board of review will be held Thursday, October 2.

PAYS TRAFFIC FINE

Fred Kenneth Harman, Westminster R. 2, arrested Tuesday night by borough police on a charge of failing to stop his car at a boulevard stop sign, paid a fine of $5 and costs to Justice of the Peace John H. Basehore.

CONDEMNATION ACTION LOOMS OVER SITE FOR BIGLER SCHOOL

The possibility that the Upper Adams County Joint School District may get into a court battle on condemnation proceedings to secure land for its proposed elementary school building in Biglerville developed today.

M. G. Rouzer, near Guernsey, owner of three lots and a tract of more than eight acres of orchards immediately north of the present Biglerville High School property, said today he and his counsel, the firm of Keith Bigham and Markley, will do all they can to prevent condemnation of the entire Rouzer property, including a dwelling house now occupied by Rouzer's son, Eugene.

Franklin R. Bigham, as attorney for Mr. Rouzer, said he has offered the Upper Adams Joint School District the eight-acre orchard tract and one vacant lot belonging to Mr. Rouzer for $9,000. This offer, made by mail Tuesday to Richard A. Brown, as counsel for the joint school district, is urged upon the school district instead of the threatened condemnation.

Board Meets Thursday

A special meeting of the Upper Adams Joint School Board has been called Thursday evening to act on a resolution of condemnation against the Rouzer property. Supervising Principal L. V. Stock said the only land the state will approve at the proposed site for the new structure includes all of the Rouzer property and some of the present school property. It was first hoped the state would approve a part of the present holdings of the school district as the grade school site. Mr. Stock said, but the state "wouldn't go along on that" because the area available was "too small."

Mr. and Mrs. Rouzer and their attorney said that negotiations for the purchase of parts of their property have been underway since July when a Biglerville board committee asked the Rouzers to sell three acres at the rear of the Rouzer dwelling and adjacent to the present school property. The price of $1,000 an acre was "mentioned," and the Rouzers said they would not refuse to sell the three-acre plot at such a figure.

Offered $18,000

Later school officials told the Rouzers all of their land, including that on which the house stands, was needed and said that if the land could not be bought it would be condemned, the Rouzers related.

On July 24, the Rouzers, although stating they would rather not sell their land, made an offer in hopes of an "amicable agreement." That offer made available to the school district the eight-acre rear tract and one of the vacant lots bordering Main St., allowing the Rouzers to keep their house and the other lot on which a shed now stands.

But the school authorities continued to insist upon securing the entire tract and offered the Rouzers $15,000. On August 4, the Rouzers, repeating their desire not to sell the house and one lot, set a price of $25,000 on the entire tract. The school offer later was raised to $18,000.

Offer Withdrawn

Allies Battle Hand-To-Hand But Lose Hill

SEOUL, Korea (AP)—Tank-supported Allied infantrymen battled to the crest of Kelly Hill on Korea's Western Front today but were thrown back after bitter hand-to-hand fighting with entrenched Chinese Reds.

AP photographer Fred Waters at the front said the battle then developed into a furious artillery and mortar duel.

Eighth Army said the Allied attackers were Puerto Ricans attached to the U. S. 3rd Division.

Savage fighting also erupted on the extreme eastern end of the battlefield. North Korean Communists failed in attempts to capture two Allied-held hills south of Koson.

B26 bombers again pounded Communist supply convoys. Pilots reported 188 Red trucks destroyed.

The dawn attack was the Allies' third attempt to recapture Kelly Hill, a strategic height captured by the Reds last Thursday night. It is seven miles southwest of Old Baldy.

Gen. Mark Clark, U. N. commander in the Far East, arrived in Seoul by plane today to confer with Gen. James A. Van Fleet and other top military officers.

SAYS M'GRATH KNEW "PLENTY"

WASHINGTON (AP) — T. Lamar Caudle testified today that former Atty. Gen. J. Howard McGrath once told him, "I know enough about the White House to blow it so high the force of gravity would never bring it back to earth."

Caudle also said McGrath, his old boss in the Justice Department, reported Caudle lost his job because of "a White House clique."

Caudle said the former attorney general told him "the same clique" that was behind Caudle's dismissal as assistant attorney general last November was also "after" McGrath.

McGrath was ousted as attorney general last April a few hours after he fired Newbold Morris, government cleanup man.

Caudle was closing several days of testimony before a House Judiciary Subcommittee headed by Rep. Chief (D-Ky.) which is investigating the Justice Department.

He did not elaborate on McGrath's statement about the White House.

great writers and dramatists and the common, everyday speech of the people. The discovery, after 1890, of old bills, letters and other documents shows the New Testament was originally spoken and written in this common language.

To correct errors and misconceptions was, of course, the first task of the Standard Bible Committee. But, more apparent to the average reader, will be the replacement of more than 300 words which have changed their meaning through the years. The clarification of these and other words which have lost their meaning completely brings new understanding to adults as well as children.

What modern reader, for instance, would imagine that the "carriages" Paul took on his trip to Jerusalem were in fact "baggage"? Acts 21:15) We still use the word "let" but that does not help us understand that "he who leteth" really means "one who restrains." (2 Thess. 2:7) We may speak of a "charger," but we think of a prancing horse rather than a "platter" on which the head of John the Baptist might be laid. (Mark 6:25) We may refer to a man's "conversation," but we never mean by that his "conduct." (James 3:13) Yet that is the way these words are used over and over in the King James Version.

TEXAS EASTERN FILES PAPERS

The third supplemental indenture between the Texas Eastern Transmission Corporation of Delaware to Manufacturers Trust Co., N. Y., and Harold J. Miller, St. Louis, Mo., as trustees, was filed today with the county prothonotary.

The supplemental indenture discloses that the Texas Eastern Transmission Corp., operators of the "Big Inch" and "Little Inch" transmission lines between Texas and New York, have borrowed $30,000,000 more from the Manufacturers Trust Co. and Miller bringing the total amount owed to $228,000,000.

According to the papers filed with the prothonotary, the transmission company has secured a total of $252,000,000 on bonds secured by mortgages, contracts, etc. Of that amount, $24,000,000 has been repaid.

The original bonded indebtedness was for $120,000,000, due in 1962, of which 3 1/2 per cent interest was paid, of which $19,250,000 has been paid by redemption of bonds. The first supplemental indenture was for $24,000,000, due in 1962, in which interest of 3 1/2 per cent was paid and of which $3,850,000 has been repaid. All of the $78,000,000 listed in the second supplemental indenture is still owed, and is due in 1970. Three and one-eighth per cent interest is being paid.

The third indenture, for $30,000,000 payable in 1967, shows that the "cost of money" has increased. The interest paid is listed as 4 per cent.

Hunting Licenses In Demand Already

Two hundred and seven Adams County hunters believe in doing things early to avoid the late season rush.

That many have secured deer licenses from the Adams County Treasurer so far in anticipation of the December hunting season.

All told 2,700 licenses for the regular deer season have been received by the county treasurer. This morning he received 750 licenses for the antlerless season to be held December 15, 16 and 17. This year all of the antlerless deer licenses available will be obtainable from the office of the county treasurer, it was reported. Last year, a portion of the licenses were retained by the state. The antlerless deer licenses are good only in the county in which they are issued.

counsel for the joint board, a letter stating the board had decided "not to increase its previous offer for the purchase of this property."

The letter continued: "A meeting of the Joint Board looking forward to the adoption of a resolution condemning said property will be held just as soon as possible. The previous offer made to your clients (the Rouzers) will be considered withdrawn if not accepted by 5 p.m. Monday, September 23."

The Rouzers said when the letter was received, they still had hopes that some agreement could be reached to avert condemnation. Mr. Rouzer said that he had told the school authorities that the $25,000 figure was not final but that he would consider reducing it "if the board would come up to $20,000 with its offer."

One solution the Rouzers had offered to the school district was for the district to buy the eight-acre Rouzer tract plus the vacant lot and then if additional frontage is needed on the main highway, two adjoining vacant lots owned by Elmer Yoder might be purchased.

No Trouble At Arendtsville
The Rouzers' most recent letter Tuesday said they believe their offer of the eight-acre tract with a single front lot together with the land that is available "would furnish the school district with all of the real estate necessary to accomplish the purpose which your client has in mind, namely: the construction of an elementary school building."

The letter also points out that if the matter can be settled amicably, "it would result in a considerable saving in money."

The Upper Adams district has not run into any difficulty in securing a site for its proposed grade school building at Arendtsville. It has taken an option on a 16-acre plot between Pearl St. and the road leading toward Biglerville. Orchards are now located on this tract, which lies back of the Arnold Orner property.

go to church to be good, but to worship God, "the ultimate reality that we will meet eventually." He said: "Goodness is a by-product of going to church. By going to church, the good will be better and the wicked will be good. When we worship Him we become more like Him.

"It is impossible for man to serve no god. We can serve God or ourselves. If the latter, then we are enslaved to ourselves, we limit our outlook and we lead grubby lives."

The speaker stressed the importance of a cohesive family unit in combating the breakup of family life that threatens America, and stressed the importance of understanding and patience of parents for children.

Answer Is With God
He mentioned the automobile, telephone, radio and television as influences which tend to disrupt the close family life of 50 years ago, and said the answer to bringing the family into closer relationship with each other lies with God.

SUBWAY SERIES SEEMS SURE AS DODGERS CLINCH NATIONAL FLAG

By RALPH RODEN
AP Sports Writer

The prospect of New York's 10th "subway" World Series since 1921 is extremely bright today with the Brooklyn Dodgers already "in" and the New York Yankees pounding on the door.

Brooklyn provided the long suffering fans of Flatbush their first restful sleep in three years last night as they clinched the 1952 National League pennant, their ninth since 1890.

True, the Brooks won the bunting only three years ago but many a member of the faithful experienced countless nightmares the past two seasons. In 1950 the Brooks missed tying Philadelphia for the pennant by bowing to the Phils on the last day of the season.

Beat Phils 5-4

Last year the Dodgers blew a 13½ game lead and were beaten out for the blue ribbon by the New York Giants in a three-game playoff.

The Brooks nailed it up last night as Johnny Rutherford pitched a 5-4 victory over Philadelphia in the first game of a two-night doubleheader. The Phils won the anti-climatic game, 1-0, in 12 innings.

Rutherford's seven-hit triumph gave Brooklyn 95 victories and made it impossible for the second-place New York Giants to pull another miracle. The Giants have 83 victories and only six games remaining.

Indians Ambushed

The Yanks, meanwhile, moved 1½ games ahead of Cleveland in the waning American League struggle without flexing their muscles. While the Bombers were rained out in Boston, the Indians were ambushed 10-1, by the Chicago White Sox.

The A's nipped the Senators, 4-3, with old Bobo Newsom gaining credit for the victory. Bobby Shantz was struck by one of Walt Masterson's pitches in the second inning and suffered a broken left wrist.

Brooklyn was forced to come from behind to beat the Phils before 24,408 screaming fans who showed up at Ebbets Field for the kill.

A doubleheader between the Giants and Boston Braves was rained out. Pittsburgh and Chicago were idle.

BROOKLYN BUSY PLANNING FOR WORLD SERIES

BROOKLYN (AP)—The pennant celebration over and done with, Charlie Dressen, victorious manager of the champion Brooklyn Dodgers, today began thinking ahead to the forthcoming World Series.

Chuck's biggest problem is to get his pitching alignment set for the annual October classic with the American League flag winners, be it the New York Yankees or the Cleveland Indians. The series starts Wednesday, Oct. 1, at Ebbets Field.

"My present plans are to start Joe Black in the opening game of the World Series," Dressen stated. "Now that Joe has proved to me he can pitch nine innings, he is my No. 1 pitcher."

Watching Labine

"If everything works out the way I hope it will," Chuck continued. "I will pitch Black in the opener and come back with Carl Erskine in the second game. The Preacher (Preacher Roe) will pitch the third game, at Yankee Stadium or Municipal Stadium."

Only the lack of a competent relief hurler on the squad, other than Black, prevented Dressen from naming his great Negro rookie (Black) as his certain first-game World Series starter.

"Much depends upon what happens today in our game with Philadelphia," Chuck said. "I'm starting Clem Labine. If he can show me he is in good form and tells me after the game that his right elbow has given him no trouble, then he'll be my No. 1 relief man in the World Series. Billy Loes figures to be my other relief pitcher."

YESTERDAY'S STARS

PITCHING: Johnny Rutherford, Dodgers. Pitched Brooklyn to a 5-4 victory over Philadelphia in first game of two-night twin bill to clinch National League pennant.

BATTING: Stan Musial, Cardinals. Clouted three hits including a triple and tenth-inning double that gave St. Louis a 4-3 triumph over Cincinnati.

TEAM GIVEN DINNER

Gettysburg Post No. 15, Veterans of Foreign Wars, tendered its 1952 softball team a dinner Wednesday evening. The team finished in second place during the regular season and lost in the finals of the playoffs to Glenn L. Bream. Steward Clarence Sadler prepared a fried chicken dinner for the members of the squad and directors of the Home Association. Approximately 30 attended.

BROKEN WRIST FOR SHANTZ IS BOON TO YANKS

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A pitch thrown by a hurler on a second division ball club to a batter with a handful of hits may have decided the 1952 American League pennant race.

The pitcher was the Washington Senators' Walt Masterson, the batter was the Philadelphia Athletics' southpaw, Bobby Shantz.

The toss unleashed by Masterson yesterday in the second inning of a Washington-A's game fractured Shantz' pitching wrist and sent the New York Yankees pennant hopes soaring.

Was To Work Sunday

Until yesterday, A's manager Jimmy Dykes had figured on Shantz to pitch against the Yankees in the season's finale next Sunday.

At that stage the junior circuit could very well be knotted with the Indians and Yankees battling even-Stephen for 1952 honors.

It is possible Shantz, the American League's leading hurler, was 24 wins and seven losses, could have sent the race into a playoff by whipping the Yanks.

He has beaten the New Yorkers four out of seven decisions this season, the last being a four hit shutout in New York last week.

MARCIANO WINS TITLE WITH KO IN 13TH ROUND; JOE IS FINISHED

By MURRAY ROSE

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Rocky Marciano, the guy Jersey Joe Walcott and many said "can't fight," is the new world heavyweight champion.

"They'll probably say he isn't 'can't fight,'" said trainer Charley Goldman shortly after the dynamic, 28-year-old flattened Walcott in 43 seconds of the 13th round. One perfect right hand sent Walcott into retirement.

Marciano's manager, Al Weill, said early today that Rocky's next opponent might be Rex Layne, Roland La Starza or Ezzard Charles.

Maybe Walcott Again

"Maybe it will be Walcott again," added the portly manager.

"Who knows? Maybe he'll change his mind and not quit. All I know is that I signed a contract to meet Walcott again in 90 days and if he wants that fight he can have it. Only it's got to be where I say—maybe Miami and maybe Chicago."

"If Walcott is really through, then we'll see about the others. He's gonna be a fighting champion, ain'tcha Rocky?"

Downed For 1st Time

"Sure," said Rocky as he held a wet towel to a mouse under his left eye while blood trickled from a cut on his scalp and from a gash between his eyes. It took eight stitches to sew up an ugly inch and a quarter on his head and six to patch up the cut on his forehead.

All the while Rocky was in training for the climactic fight of his career, his wife Barbara was barred from camp. Although she expects a child in November, Barbara watched the thrilling slugfest along with 40,379 paying fans in mammoth Municipal Stadium.

She saw her husband, battered and bleeding, knocked down for the first time in his career, come back to end one of the most exciting battles of modern times with one perfectly executed right hand blow to Walcott's jaw.

Joe Led On Points

Rocky followed with a left that grazed the stricken champion's head as the 38-year-old Walcott slowly fell to the deck.

Walcott's eyes went blank. The old guy, who put up one of the greatest fights of his long career, sank slowly to the canvas.

The old gent was well ahead on the scorecards of all three officials at the end.

Thus, as he won the title, Jersey Joe lost it—with one blow.

Manager Says He's Through

"He's through," said Walcott's manager, Felix Boicchiechio.

"Whatever Felix says I'll do," said the heart-broken ex-champion.

The fight grossed $504,645 at the gate and theater-tickets probably will add another $125,000. On his 40 per cent, Walcott earned approximately $188,000. Rocky, cut in for 20 per cent, reaped about $94,035.

GHS-GRIDDERS MET 29 TIMES

When Gettysburg and Carlisle High Schools' football teams clash here Friday evening at 8 o'clock to open their South Penn Conference campaigns, one of the oldest rivalries for the Warriors will be resumed.

The series was begun in 1919 when Gettysburg registered a 19-0 decision. Friday's game will mark the 30th meeting between the schools, the series being all even at 13 wins apiece with three deadlocks on the records.

In addition to winning the opening tilt of the long series, Gettysburg victories were as follows: 1924, 13-0; 1925, 13-0; 1926, 12-0; 1929, 12-6; 1931, 6-0; 1933, 7-0; 1935, 18-6; 1940, 16-0; 1942, 25-0; 1948, 6-0; 1949, 7-0, and 1951, 18-0.

Carlisle triumphs included: 1927, 20-6; 1928, 6-0; 1930, 13-0; 1934, 19-0; 1936, 26-6; 1937, 19-7; 1941, 19-18; 1943, 7-6; 1944, 26-0; 1945, 26-0; 1946, 26-0; 1947, 45-0, and 1950, 13-0.

The ties were played as follows: 1932, 1938 and 1939, all 0-0.

Friday's tilt shapes up as one of the outstanding conference games of the season and it is likely the winner will be branded as the favorite to win the 1952 championship, won last season by the Warriors.

The Gettysburg Times

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

Your Daily Newspaper is Now 25 Years Old: Organized and launched in September, 1927, as the Progress, Your Daily Newspaper, The Gettysburg Times, successor to The Progress, is this month observing its Silver Jubilee.

Struggling against great odds 25 years ago, your Daily Newspaper kept going for about four years when it went into the hands of receivers and for a brief time suspended publication.

But it got a new lease on life, and today The Gettysburg Times is one of the largest in Adams county . . .

Miss Clapsaddle Bride at Church Ceremony: Miss Gladys Clapsaddle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Clapsaddle, Buchanan Valley, became the bride of George Steinberger, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Steinberger, near Gettysburg, at a nuptial mass celebrated at the St. Ignatius church, Buchanan Valley, by the Rev. W. W. Whalen Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock.

Miss Della Clapsaddle acted as bridesmaid. Edgar Dillon was best man.

Upon their return from a wedding trip, they will go to housekeeping in their newly furnished apartment on East Middle street.

Miss Martha Schultz Bride of Fern Crouse: Miss Martha Schultz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Schultz, Gettysburg R. 5, became the bride of Fern Crouse, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Crouse, near Littlestown, at a ceremony performed at the bride's home August 30 by the Rev. George Ely, Miss Hazel Schultz was bridesmaid and Stewart Crouse was best man. They are making their home with the groom's parents.

Sells Black Farm: Charles S. Black, administrator of the estate of R. H. Black, has sold the R. H. Black farm in Cumberland township containing 104 acres, to Harry E. Carbaugh, of Cumberland township. The transfer was made through William Olinger.

Wed at Hagerstown: Miss Nellie M. Berkamp, Hanover, became the bride of Oscar P. Riley, of Aspers, at a ceremony performed at Hagerstown, Wednesday afternoon.

Swisher Heads K. of C.: At the regular meeting of Gettysburg council Knights of Columbus, held in the Knights of Columbus home, Baltimore street, Thursday evening, the following officers were elected for the coming year:

Grand knight, Charles E. Swisher; deputy grand knight, Bernard P. Maguire; chancellor, William Alwine; warden, Francis A. Smith; advocate, William McSherry; inside guards, Charles Redding and Cyril Staub; outside guard, Norbert Oyler; trustee for three years, John C. Irvin; recorder, Charles I. Jacobs; delegates to the state convention, Charles E. Swisher and Frank J. Sionaker; alternates, Peter C. Stock and Edgar P. Hamilton. The Rev. Mark E. Stock was appointed chaplain.

Miss Helen Irene Cook Weds at Hagerstown: Miss Helen Irene Cook, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Cook, Cashown, became the bride of Clarence E. Douglas, Chambersburg, at a ceremony performed at the parsonage of the United Brethren church at Hagerstown, by the Rev. Berry Plummer, Thursday afternoon. They were accompanied to Hagerstown by Lester Lutz, of Chambersburg.

Wins Title and a Million: Chicago, Sept. 23 (AP)—Gene Tunney retained his title as a heavyweight champion of the world before the largest crowd to witness a prize fight in the history of the game at Soldiers Field, Chicago, last night and incidentally drew a purse of $1,000,000 for the 25 minutes he was in the ring. Dempsey, the contender for the title, which he lost a year ago today at Philadelphia, drew a purse of $450,000.

Beaten to the dust of the canvas by a terrific left hook in the seventh round, Gene gallantly got up and came back to whip his ever dangerous opponent.

Bleeding and bruised Jack Dempsey reached the end of his career in the ring when he could not fol-

SEEDS
One of the greatest wonders of nature is seeds. All over the island where I spent my summer vacation were great trees, a hundred and more years in their growing, and all about were smaller trees of the same variety, some but a few inches to several feet in height. I looked upon both the great and the small as miracles of nature.

And in all parts of that island of mine were to be discovered flowers, growing in the most unusual spots—seeds blown by the wind, carried by birds and dropped, and seeds that came long distances to find a welcome spot in good ground. How very wonderful! In the early history of the United States was a man who loved nature. He travelled here, there, and everywhere, scattering apple seeds. Few know, or even inquire his name, so he became known as "Johnny Appleseed." He was a great benefactor, and left something of himself wherever he let a seed drop. And when he died the Congress of the United States paused to pay him honor. Just a planter of seeds. That is all. But what an example of thoughtfulness, untold numbers paying silent tribute!

Our acts may become seeds, dropped into the fertile soil of people's minds, giving to them hope, comfort, and increased faith. The tiler of the soil is a reverent human being. His thoughts are in tune with the Infinite Mind. His livelihood, and that of endless others, centers in the seeds that he sows.

Thirty years ago I planted two small maples on my home grounds. Today they reach high into space and give forth beautiful foliage. I love to watch their first leafing in the springtime, and look out upon them when autumn gives color and beauty to their final offering of the year. Each one of them formerly but a small seed planted in the good earth!

What a chemical laboratory is this earth of ours! All we have to do is to plant the seed and nature does the rest. Nature to whom we all belong!

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Distant Yellow Things".

MOTHER COUNSEL
Said her mother: "I know he's a wonderful lad.
But in time you will learn he is much like your dad.
He'll have habits and moods that today you don't see.
But after you're married quite plain they will be."

"A youth when he's wooing few faults will display,
But a husband annoyed will have cross words to say.
He is careless and foolish; at times sulky, too,
And does things you'll wish that no longer he'd do."

"He will change, as will you, as you go through the years,
And he won't stay as trim as today he appears.
But a good life together, I'm sure can be had.
If only you'll love him as I've loved your dad."

low up that one terrific blow which had Gene on the floor. The heavyweight champion went through the closing rounds growing stronger with every exchange of blows and at the end of the tenth round Dempsey barely was able to stand as Tunney slashed away at him with both hands.

Graveyard to Be Removed Soon: With the petition to the court asking permission to remove the 235 bodies interred in the old Reformed and Lutheran cemetery, on both sides of High street, granted Monday morning by Judge D. P. McPherson, the contract for the removal of the remains was awarded to Emory Williams, at a joint meeting of the consistories of St. James Lutheran church and Trinity Reformed congregation held Monday night.

The cemetery which was used for many years as a burying ground for the members of the two congregations has not been in use in recent years and it is the intention of the congregation of the Reformed church to construct a parsonage on one of the lots after the work of removing the bodies has been completed.

The cemetery was organized in 1803 and continued in use until 1881.

670 Students Enrolled for College Term: Gettysburg college opened its doors for the 96th year to more than 670 students at exercises held Wednesday morning at Brua Chapel. Dr. Henry W. A. Hanson welcomed the students back to college again and introduced the new members of the faculty.

The new faculty members are Dean W. E. Tilber, Dr. E. W. Cheyney, C. E. Bilheimer, Leveine Krall, A. C. Green, C. A. Sloat, E. Von Schwerdtner, Mr. Smith, Mr. Smoke, Luther Straley, H. T. Bream and J. C. Franks.

Nixon Denies Wrongdoing In

in Washington, the one on the house in Whittier, I owe $4,500 to the Riggs Bank, in Washington, D. C., with interest at 4 per cent.
"I owe $3,500 to my parents, and the interest on that loan, which I pay regularly, because it is a part of the savings they made through the years they were working so hard—I pay regularly 4 per cent interest."

Loan On Life Insurance
"And then I have a $500 loan, which I have on my life insurance.
"Well, that's about it. That's what we have. And that's what we owe. It isn't very much. But Pat and I have the satisfaction that every dime that we have got is honestly ours."

Cites Foes' Funds
About other funds which concern the Democratic presidential and vice presidential candidates, Senator Nixon said:

"You have read in the papers about other funds. Now, Mr. Stevenson apparently had a couple. One of them in which a group of business people paid and helped to supplement the salaries of State employees. Here is where the money went directly into their pockets, and I think that what Mr. Stevenson should do should be to come before the American people, as I have, give the names of the people that contributed to that fund, give the names of the people who put this money into their pockets, at the same time that they were receiving money from their State governments and see what favors, if any, they gave out for that."

"I don't condemn Mr. Stevenson for what he did, but until the facts are in there is a doubt that would be (Editor's Note: Word or words here unclear). And as far as Mr. Sparkman is concerned, I would suggest the same thing. He's had his wife on the payroll. I don't condemn him for that, but I think that he should come before the American people and indicate what outside sources of income he has had."

"I would suggest that under the circumstances both Mr. Sparkman and Mr. Stevenson should come before the American people, as I have, and make a complete financial statement as to their financial history, and if they don't it will be an admission that they have something to hide."

"I Am Not A Quitter"
"And, now, finally, I know that you wonder whether or not I am going to stay on the Republican ticket or resign. Let me say this: I don't believe that I ought to quit, because I am not a quitter. And, incidentally, Pat is not a quitter. After all, her name was Patricia Ryan and she was born on St. Patrick's Day, and you know the Irish never quit."

"But the decision, my friends, is not mine. I would do nothing that would harm the possibilities of Dwight Eisenhower to become President of the United States. And for that reason I am submitting to the Republican National Committee tonight through this television broadcast the decision which it is theirs to make."

Asks For Decision
"Let them decide whether my position on the ticket will help or hurt. And I am going to ask you to help them decide. Wire and write the Republican National Committee whether you think I should stay on or whether I should get off. And whatever their decision is, I will abide by it.
"But just let me say this last word. Regardless of what happens, I am going to continue this fight. I am going to campaign up and down America until we drive the crooks and the Communists and those that defend them out of Washington. And remember, folks, Eisenhower is a great man. Folks, he is a great man, and a vote for Eisenhower is a vote for what is good for America."

JUSTICE DEPT. CHECKS LAW ON FINANCIAL HELP

WASHINGTON (AP)—A special Justice Department examination of federal laws in relation to "outside financial help" received by public officials is under way amid considerable confusion as to how it got started.

The White House at first claimed credit for originating the idea in connection with the $18,000 expense account provided Sen. Richard M. Nixon by California supporters, and then disclaimed having anything to do with it whatsoever.

At the Justice Department, where a crisp "no comment" greeted all inquiries about the undertaking, the indications were that the project was an extension of Atty. Gen. McGranery's apparent policy of "doing something" about everything that comes up within his jurisdiction.

White House In And Out
McGranery, latest of a series of government "clean-up" men, took office last May in succession to Atty. Gen. J. Howard McGrath, went out under loud Republican criticism that he had "dragged his feet" on matters requiring prompt action.

The Department itself has not as yet officially admitted any inquiry into the matter of supplemental funds for federal officers. However, shortly after it became known that McGranery had directed aides to study the statutes in this connection, a White House secretary told reporters that President Truman himself had asked the Attorney General to look into the matter of Nixon's supplemental funds.

A few hours later the same secretary announced he had been mistaken, that the White House had given no directive to the Justice Department.

Sources emphasized that what was underway was not an investigation of Nixon himself, or his special funds, but a broad study into the whole question of non-government financial support for persons in public office.

PA. DEMOCRATS IN SNYDER CO.

MIDDLEBURG, Pa. (AP)—Guy K. Bard brought his campaign for the U. S. Senate into Snyder County to place Dwight D. Eisenhower's name on the Democratic ballot in Texas involved "political immorality."

The Democratic senatorial candidate discussed the Texas political situation on Monday at a campaign rally in nearby Lewistown, Mifflin County.

In other Democratic campaign developments: W. Averell Harriman, Mutual Security Administrator, said at Philadelphia that Sen. Robert A. Taft of Ohio is "calling the signals in the Republican campaign."

And Miss Genevieve Blatt, Democratic candidate for state auditor general, told a group of Democratic women at Washington, Pa., that it's time to "open the financial books at Harrisburg."

Three Killed In Two-Car Collision

BETHLEHEM, Pa. (AP)—Three persons were killed and four others were injured in a two-car collision at a road intersection several miles from here.

The dead were identified by state police yesterday as Clifford Wanamaker, 32, driver of the car; his wife, Ida, 30, both of Bethlehem; and Mrs. Mildred Geist, 38, formerly of Slatedale, Lehigh County, a passenger in Wanamaker's automobile.

Three other in Wanamaker's car, Clarence Wanamaker, 27, brother of Clifford, suffering internal injuries and a possible fractured wrist; and Eva, 4, and Anna, 2, children of Mrs. Geist, both suffering bodily injuries, were brought to St. Luke's Hospital here. Their condition was listed as serious.

Driver of the other car, Hamilton Craig II of Belle Mead, N. J., was taken to the hospital with lacerations of the face and body.

STEVENSON HAS NO COMMENT ON NIXON SPEECH

By RELMAN MORIN
BALTIMORE (AP)—Gov. Adlai Stevenson, withholding comment on Sen. Richard M. Nixon's statement about the $18,000 political expense fund, headed for Illinois today with the assertion that he is sure of victory in the presidential election.

He closed a campaign sweep through the Atlantic Seaboard with a speech in Baltimore in which he said the Republicans—and particularly Sen. Robert A. Taft—are responsible for inflation and the high costs of living.

Wage and price controls, he said, may have to be tightened, not further relaxed—a last-minute revision in the original text.

Watched Nixon On TV
Stevenson watched Nixon's television broadcast through the first few minutes but had to leave for his own speech before the California senator finished.

Afterward, reporters told him that Nixon said he was placing his case in the hands of the Republican National Committee. They asked for comment, and Stevenson replied:

"I don't think I'll have anything to say on that."

Carris Fight To GOP
There are no surface evidences of satisfaction in Stevenson's camp over the Nixon case. In fact, correspondents who have been covering the governor's campaign have heard little discussion of it among his staff, one way or the other.

He concentrated on carrying the fight to the Republicans on a major issue of this campaign—inflation and costs of living.

High taxes and high costs of living, he told an audience of about 8,500 people in Baltimore, are the result of necessary military spending, caused by the threat from Soviet Russia. And he added: "The great majority of Republicans in Congress voted to end rent control. . . . Four times, a majority of the Republicans voted to end controls on all things consumers buy."

4-Point Program
He called Taft "the leader of the inflationary shock troops in Congress."

Stevenson offered a four-point program for combatting inflation: 1. A tighter rein on government spending. 2. A pay-as-you-go tax pattern. 3. Federal curbs on "excessive private borrowing."

4. A tightening of wage and price controls until Congress has time to re-examine the present set-up.

P. O. ROBBERS ARE NABBED IN IDAHO

BOISE, Idaho (AP)—Thomas Edward Young, 34, one of the FBI's "10 most wanted" fugitives, and his wife, Margaret, 32, were surprised and captured yesterday by FBI agents in the wild, rugged Boise National Forest.

The couple, cornered on a lonely one-way mountain road, surrendered meekly although they were heavily armed.

"Wrong Name" Death Brings Man 15 Years

MEXICO CITY (AP)—A man who confused a dog's name with an insult was sentenced yesterday to 15 years in prison for homicide.
The Supreme Court confirmed the sentence against Gaudalope Chavez' appeal said he shot when he heard Castro shouting "fierabras" (tough guy). He said he thought Castro was insulting him and it was only after the shooting he learned the man was calling his dog, named Fierabras.

IKE SUMMONS NIXON FOR TALK ON GOP TICKET

ABOARD Eisenhower Special (AP)
Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower has dramatically summoned Sen. Richard M. Nixon for a face-to-face conference almost certain to insure Nixon's retention on the Republican ticket.

The meeting of the two GOP candidates awaits the working out of details by their two staffs.

Ike Grim-Faced
Eisenhower told a tumultuous audience of 16,000 persons jam-packed into Cleveland's Public Hall last night that his vice presidential running mate had given "an example of courage" in a radio-television report from Los Angeles on Nixon's financial affairs.

The grim-faced Eisenhower evoked a roaring response as he declared:

"I happen to be one of those people who, when I get in a fight, would rather have a courageous and honest man at my side than a whole boxcar of pussyfoeters."

But he added: "It is obvious that I have to have something more than one single presentation—necessarily limited to 30 minutes, the time allotted to Sen. Nixon."

Crowd Wants Nixon
Nixon, in an emotional recounting of his financial affairs, denied that he ever used one penny personally of an $18,000 fund raised by wealthy Californians to pay what he said were "political expenses."

Eisenhower announced he was throwing away a prepared speech on inflation.

"I have been a warrior and I like courage," the general told the suddenly hushed audience. "Tonight I saw an example of courage."

Previously Rep. George Bender of Ohio, presiding, had asked the spectators to say whether they wanted Nixon to continue as the vice presidential nominee.

They gave a thunderous "Yes" in reply. When Bender asked if any wanted Nixon removed, a scattered few replied they did.

AFL ENDORSES STEVENSON IN UNUSUAL MOVE

NEW YORK (AP)—The American Federation of Labor convention Tuesday endorsed Gov. Adlai E. Stevenson, the Democratic candidate, for President of the United States.
The action was unanimous by the 800 delegates who acted on a committee recommendation.

It was the first endorsement by convention action since the AFL was founded in 1881. Back in 1924 a special AFL committee endorsed the late Sen. Robert M. LaFollette of Wisconsin who was running for the presidency on the Progressive ticket.

Thunderous Shouts
The announcement by AFL President William Green of the outcome of the standing vote by delegates at the Hotel Commodore was greeted with thunderous shouts. Scraps of torn paper were hurled into the air.

The CIO already has endorsed Stevenson, thus putting the two big branches of labor firmly behind the Democratic candidate.

All the 800 delegates appeared to be standing on the vote as they applauded, whistled and cheered for half a minute.

No Opposition
After calling for "nay" votes to be registered in the same way, Green carefully scanned the convention hall. There appeared to be no one standing among the delegates.

Green then announced "it appears there is no opposition" and declared the report "officially adopted." Prolonged cheers rang out again.

Convention delegates represent 8,098,302 AFL members.
The Executive Council report urging members to vote for Stevenson was submitted by George Meany, AFL secretary-treasurer.

NORTH ADAMS SCHOOL BUDGET FOR '53 READY

It will cost $117,791 to educate the more than 550 students in the North Adams Joint School System during the coming year, according to the budget submitted by the York Springs area board to the county school board for approval.

The budget lists expected income as: miscellaneous receipts, $3,000; from Huntington Twp., $57,708.75; from Latimore Twp., $46,303.38; and from York Springs, $110,778.87.

Expenditures will include: General control, $2,386; instruction, $82,650; auxiliary agencies, $16,350; operation of plant, $6,085; maintenance of plant, $4,500; fixed charges, $2,720; capital outlay, $3,100.

Salaries To Rise
Most of the outlays listed are higher than the actual amounts spent during the previous year, and the budget appears to have been designed to give "a little lee-way" in most departments in anticipation of possible increases in cost of all the things that go into the cost of instruction.

While $2,386 is listed for general control expenditures in 1952-53, the outlay for that division of the budget in 1951-52 was only $604.80. Included in this year's budget is a $1,000 expense for legal services, which was not needed in 1951-52. The amount for secretarial salaries, $400 last year, is increased to $800 this year.

Amounts listed for instructional costs reflect the mandatory increases in teachers' salaries brought about by law. Last year $60,345.40 was spent for teachers' salaries. This year's budget calls for an outlay of $66,000 for teachers' salaries. The total amount spent for instruction was increased from $78,031.45 in 1951-52 to $92,650 this year.

To Cut Tuition Costs
While the amount listed as spent for supplies last year was $3,700, the amount on the budget for 1952 is $4,500 to provide not only additional equipment, but to take care of possible increases in the cost of school books and equipment. Tuition costs, however, are expected to decline. Last year the joint district spent $7,473.05 for tuition of students from its area in schools outside the district. This year the amount budgeted for tuition is $2,700.

Transportation costs are also expected to decline. Last year's expenditures for buses was $14,149.20. This year the budget calls for $14,500 to be spent under the heading of auxiliary agencies for student transportation.

The cost of operating the schools this year, $6,085, is an increase over the $5,393.02 spent last year. Maintenance of the schools is also given a healthy increase in the budget. Last year $11,997.74 was spent. This year, $4,500 is budgeted. A larger amount is also listed for repairs—"just in case." Last year $142.25 was spent. This year $1,800 is budgeted. Replacements in the heating, plumbing and lighting division cost $185.04 last year. This year, playing safe, the board has budgeted $1,000. Similar advances are listed along the line to handle potential expenses in 1952-53, with the board hoping that the amount budgeted will not all have to be spent.

SEEK WILLIAM LAY
Since a number of persons by the name of Lay are residents of the York Springs area and nearby communities, they are requested by York police to notify them if anyone can supply information of the whereabouts of William L. Lay whose son, Joseph, Pullerton, Calif., was reported killed Saturday, September 20. Police said over the week end that they were unable to locate William Lay, reported to have once lived at 650 W. King St., York. No more details of the circumstances surrounding his son's death in California were available here.

CUBS WILL FEED BIRDS IN WINTER

Birds in the York Springs area are going to find life easier this winter if plans of the Cub Scouts in the community are carried out.

Both Den 1, led by Mrs. Ray W. Miller and Mrs. Robert Martin as Den Mothers, and Den 2, of which Mrs. Glenn Kemper and Mrs. Gilbert Guise are Den Mothers, have been completing various types of bird feeders during the past several months.

The youngsters, now that the feeders are constructed and painted, are planning to keep them until the winter months and then will place them complete with feed where the birds can obtain a free lunch.

Mrs. Miller said one of the young scouts in her den explained: "The birds can find plenty to eat now—we'll put out the feeders when there's snow on the ground and the birds can't find other food."

Other Activities
Den 2 members for the most part used cigar boxes and spoons to construct the feeders, painting them different colors. Den 1 members went in more for individualistic type feeders. One member, Keith Martin, renovated a toy barn and constructed a platform on it so the birds will have an unusual type of feeder if they visit his home this winter.

Activities of the clubs include surprise birthday parties for the members, a treasure hunt, which concluded with the finding of a watermelon as the treasure, and collecting of leaves and identifying trees. This fall, when the leaves turn in color, the Cub Scouts are scheduled to gather and make scrapbooks of the various leaves.

Visits to spots of interest and study of local history are also among the activities of the dens.

Lower Bermudian S.S. Class Plans Party

The Ever Faithful Young Peoples Class of Lower Bermudian Lutheran Church, a part of the York Springs charge, was entertained last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Ebersole, East Berlin R. 1, with initial plans made to conduct a Halloween party within a few weeks at the social room of the church.

After the meeting, Mr. and Mrs. Ebersole entertained class members, along with relatives and other guests, at a wienie roast with games and songs. One of the guests, Jane Delione, 15, who has been attending St. Gertrude's Academy, Washington, D. C., entertained with a vocal solo and acting performance. Other guests were: The Rev. and Mrs. Norman L. Bortner, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Knapp, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hess and son, Charles, Mrs. Grace Ebersole Nagorny and children, Susan and Stephen, Mrs. Robert Lusk and daughter, Bonnie, Mrs. Plana Hoak and daughters, Nadine and Geneva, Mrs. Euphemia Walton, Sandra Walton, Jeanne Heikes, Ilene Heikes, Joanne McClure, Helen Myers, Rosemary Balek, Audrey Myers, Nancy Nell, Jane A. Ebersole, Lowell Heikes, Lawrence Racer, Milo Hockenberry, Kenneth Gladfelter, Fred Barthelme, Dale King, Fred Ebersole and Samuel A. Ebersole.

Annual Meeting At Warrington House

Plans have been completed to hold again the annual Society of Friends meeting at the old Warrington meeting house, near Wellsville, with Howard Passmore, clerk of the annual Friends Meeting in Baltimore and a member of the faculty of Friends School, that city, guest speaker.

The meeting of persons of the section, descendants of the original Friends (Quakers) who founded the meeting house, takes place once a year in order to fill the requirement to keep their charter as a place of worship, although most of those attending have now affiliated with other denominations.

The general public is welcome at the sessions, between 11 a.m. and 2:30 p.m. Sunday, September 28.

GLIDDEN TOUR . . . Greetings folks. . . Say—if you missed those beautiful cars that passed through Dillsburg and Gettysburg on Tuesday, you really missed out on a great thing. . . There were conveyances in that procession that were born long before you and I were born. . . That is, if you're my age! . . . All kinds of cars were represented, some of a vintage long gone and forgotten. For instance: Have you ever heard of these makes? Marmon, Mercer, Chandler, Mercedes, Buick? We managed to get a pretty good look at two Stanley Steamers that were "resting" at Martin Speck's Garage, which, by the way, was the Official Glidden Garage for this area. The steamers were made in 1911 and 1912, finished beautifully in green and black, and both were twenty horsepower models. About ten years of work went into the restoration of these cars, as quite a few of the parts had to be machined. . . Strangely enough, the flash boilers of both sedans were original equipment, and were ghostly quiet in operation. . . Did you know there were 125 different steam cars manufactured in the U. S. . . . In 1905, a Stanley Steamer ran a mile—averaging 127.66 MPH? The Glidden tour this year was sponsored by the AAA. Coincidentally this, the original tour back in 1905 was sponsored by the same organization. . . A Pierce-Arrow won that year.

1953 AUTOMOBILES . . . While we're on the subject of cars, here's an unofficial preview of what to expect in the '53 cars. Ford has shelved its overhead valve V-8, because of tooling up difficulties. Chevrolet, ditto with their V-8 for the same reason. Instead Chevy will feature a new body, and the same old six, with more power, achieved through aluminum pistons, and higher compression. The horsepower race is still on: Oldsmobile will boost theirs to approx. 175, and Chrysler will leave the pack by coming close to the 200 mark. . . It is rumored that Nash will introduce the NX-1, which is a small car, similar in power and weight to the Henry J, only a wee bit cheaper. . . Dodge will bring out a V-8, very much like the Chrysler. It is a scaled down version of the new Fire-Power V-8. . . Dodge, of course, has been underpowered for years. . . Along with Buick, there is every indication that both Nash and Pontiac will offer new engines in next year's cars. . . This is, of course, barring steel shortages. . . Save this paper till around November and see just what our "batting average" is. . . Most of this information comes from a reliable source! . . . Oh yes, in case you haven't noticed, I'm an automobile enthusiast. . . If you've any questions pertaining to cars, send them in to The Times and we'll do our best to answer them!

Drive carefully. . . See you soon. . . HH.

Col. Kress Speaks At Town Meeting

A parade, led by the Dillsburg Band and including members of Boy Scout Troop No. 38, the Girl Scout Troop, Veterans of Foreign Wars and representatives of the Dillsburg Junior Chamber of Commerce, highlighted the start of the first of three Town Meetings to be held in the Dillsburg Community Hall, sponsored by the Dillsburg Junior Chamber of Commerce.

The speaker for the first meeting was Walter J. Kress, Harrisburg attorney. Col. Kress has long been associated with the American Legion, serving in both state and national offices. He is state commander of the Department of Pennsylvania Military Order of the World Wars. Colonel Kress gave an inspiring talk on communism and the characteristics of Communists. A fair crowd was in attendance.

The Town Meeting was followed by the 19th Appreciation Day drawing. Mrs. Levi Klink, Dillsburg, won 10 per cent of the total sum, while Mrs. Monroe Starry, Dillsburg, won the consolation prize of $7 in groceries donated by Hunter's Self Service Store.

BRIDAL SHOWER AT DILLSBURG

A surprise bridal shower was given for bride-elect Miss Joanne Nesbitt recently by Mrs. Vance Seibert and Miss Ann Seibert, Dillsburg. Those attending were: Mrs. Harry Wagner, Mrs. Ross Beitzel, Mrs. Arthur Myers, Mrs. Chalmers Baker Sr., Mrs. Chalmers Baker Jr., Mrs. Arden Rosenberger, Mrs. Marlin Rosenberger, Mrs. Percy Rosenberger, Mrs. Ralph Kennedy, Mrs. Marshall Smith, Mrs. Melvin Grove, Mrs. Lavere Kinter, Mrs. Richard Neil, Mrs. Donald Gassink, Mrs. Jay Cook, Mrs. Vernon Nesbitt, Miss Judy Nesbitt, Mrs. Ruth Hall, Mrs. Wilbur Fisher, Mrs. Richard Knaub, Mrs. Ruth Gerber and Miss Janice Crawford. Miss Nesbitt received many lovely gifts and simple refreshments were served by the hostesses.

Mr. and Mrs. Maurice S. Hoffman, Dillsburg R. 1, recently returned from a week's trip to Johnson City, N. Y. where they visited Mrs. Hoffman's cousin and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Richard LeVan. They also toured New York state and Canada and climaxed their trip with a tour through the Corning Glass Works at Corning, N. Y.

A minor traffic accident occurred September 18 at the corner of York and South Baltimore Sts., when a Mrs. Kirk failed to stop at a stop sign on York St. and crashed into the left front of an automobile driven down S. Baltimore St., operated by Kenneth Rebert, Dillsburg. No one was injured.

Norman Wiley, electrical dealer, Dillsburg, left Sunday for New York City where he will become a 33rd Degree Mason.

Breaks His Ankle
Henry Strayer, Dillsburg, local contractor, broke his ankle September 17 while working on a grading project for the Dillsburg National Bank. He was operating a roller and was pinned between the roller and a mound of dirt.

In a softball game played between the Dillsburg Junior Chamber of Commerce and the Metropolitan Edison Co. for the town championship, Lester Grove, Dillsburg, an employee of the Metropolitan Edison Co., suffered a severe fractured ankle while making a slide to second base. Paul Miller, Dillsburg R. 1, a player on the Jaycee team, was also injured, suffering a bruised kneecap.

Mrs. James Mc. Drake and infant son, James Jr., Dillsburg, left September 20 to visit Mrs. Drake's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Johnston, in New Iberia, Louisiana. They motored from Dillsburg to Washington, D. C., where they took the consolation prize of $7 in groceries donated by Hunter's Self Service Store.

Times Reporter In Dillsburg

Mrs. Marilyn G. Hoffman, wife of John Hoffman, Dillsburg, began her duties this week as news correspondent for The Gettysburg Times in Dillsburg.

Mrs. Hoffman will gather general community news for The Times including social items, news of organizations including civic, fraternal, social and patriotic groups, schools, churches and businesses.

Mrs. Hoffman resides on East York St. and her post office address is Box 96.

a plane to New Orleans. Mrs. Drake and her son expect to stay for several weeks.

Mrs. R. O. O'Dell, St. Albans, Vt., is visiting her mother, Mrs. Ida Spath and sister, Mrs. William Gooding, Dillsburg. On Tuesday she left for New York City where she will visit a daughter, returning to Dillsburg for several more weeks. Mrs. O'Dell's husband is a physician in St. Albans.

Mr. and Mrs. Vance Seibert, Dillsburg, visited Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Clemens, Reading, on Sunday. Mrs. Clemens was the former home economics teacher at York Springs High School. Mr. Clemens, prior to moving to Reading, had operated the Clemens Funeral Home in Dillsburg and was associated with Knaub-Clemens Furniture Company.

Harper Lemming, president of Karper and Gates, Inc., Carlisle, visited in town recently. His wife, a niece of James Williams, Dillsburg's oldest resident, has been seriously ill at her home.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Fisher are touring the New England states. Mr. and Mrs. Lester E. Kraft and infant daughter, Diane, came to the Wellsville section last week to make their home with a relative, Claude Paxton. The Krafts, formerly of Spring Grove, lived for a part of the summer with his brother, W. Lewis Kraft, and family, East Berlin, while seeking suitable housing in that town.

Mr. and Mrs. Taft Stiffler and children, Patricia and Ronald, near Dillsburg, joined a large group of other relatives recently at the annual reunion of the Stiffler family, conducted at the Summit Grove camp grounds, near New Freedom. Guests from Pennsylvania, Maryland and New Jersey participated.

The recently born daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Punt, York Springs, has been named Donna Lee, and was christened September 14 at the Catholic Church in New Oxford by the Rev. Philip J. Ger-gen, pastor, with Mr. and Mrs. Anthony diPaolo as godparents.

Mrs. John Herschok, North York, formerly known in York Springs, will begin her new duties October 1 as teacher of the kindergarten program of the new full-time nursery school at the new Jewish Community Center, York, for children of any creed. Thirty-five children had enrolled last week for the classes.

The Richard Ellicker family, who had been living in the Bermudian area, have purchased a property in the East Berlin section near Red Run Church and recently took possession.

When young children are given cooked dried beans, the beans should be mashed or put through a food chopper to make them thoroughly digestible.

AT MAY REUNION
A large number of persons from the Dillsburg section were present at the recent reunion of the May family, conducted at May's Meeting House, near Admire, with election of officers and a program at which the Rev. J. H. Hege, pastor of the Dover Lutheran church, was guest speaker. A basket lunch was served. Claude E. May was elected president of the reunion organization, with George W. May, vice president; Verdella May Hershey, secretary; Dr. Charles H. May, treasurer, and J. Elmer May, treasurer-for-trustees.

INCREASE YIELD—SPEED HARVEST DATE By using FERTILENE LIQUID FERTILIZER on your corn and soy bean crops

GUARANTEED SAFE! FAST ACTING—EFFECTIVE
Give your Corn and Soy Bean crops the vital elements they need by spraying the leaves with Fertylene Liquid Fertilizer during growth. Science has PROOF that liquid fertilizer can be as easily absorbed by the plant through the leaves as through the root system. Fertylene is Guaranteed. . . It will never burn or damage valuable crops. Thousands of farms in every part of the country have reported exceptional results using Fertylene as directed.

FERTILENE "2-IN-1 ACTION"
FEEDS THROUGH LEAVES Within a few hours after spraying the leaves . . . nutrients will reach every part of the plant. Tests indicate that one ounce of Phosphorous applied in this way is equal to a full pound applied to the soil.
FEEDS THROUGH SOIL Dripping from the Leaf Spraying treatment, Fertylene reaches the root system of the plant and feeds both ways. Your crops get the double benefit of Leaf Feeding and Root Feeding when you spray Fertylene.

Any Spray Equipment Will Do
Merely adjust the nozzles of your spraying equipment so that they are directed at the leaves. No special equipment is ever needed when you use Fertylene. AND . . . You can spray Fertylene mixed with your insecticides and weed killers . . . Just add Fertylene instead of water and you're ready to do two jobs in one.

Proven Results . . . Easy To Use
Fertylene is the easiest method to add fertilizer during the growing period. You owe it to yourself . . . as a progressive farmer and sound business man to use Fertylene this season. Make extra money the easy way. Save time, save work and give your plants a boost for bigger profits.

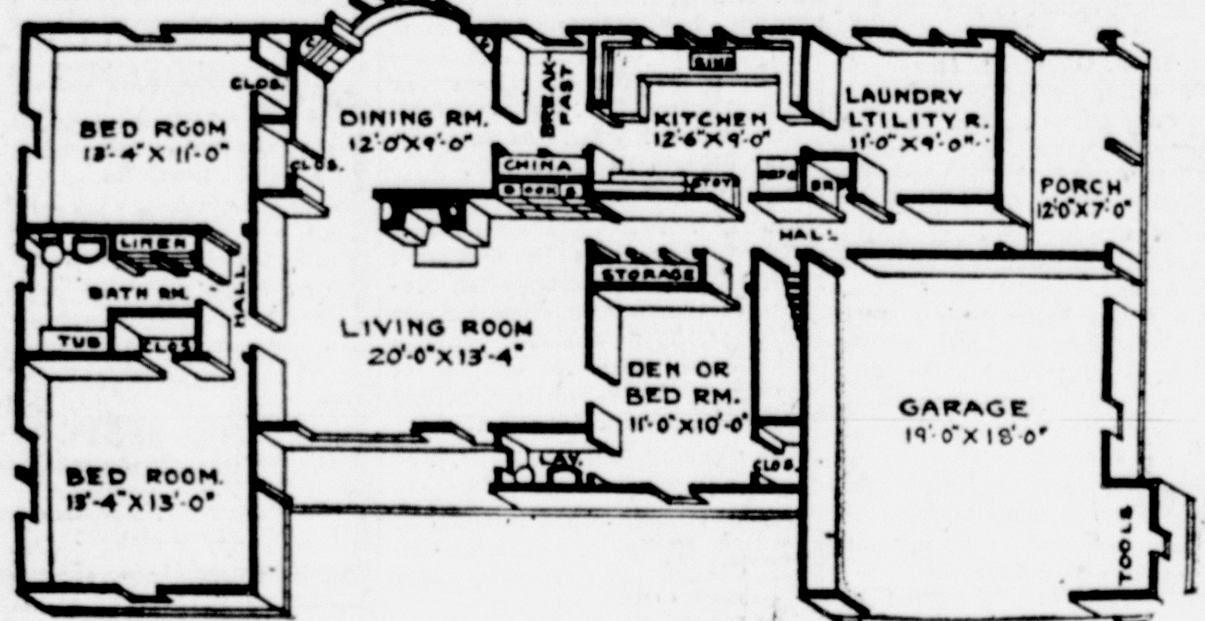

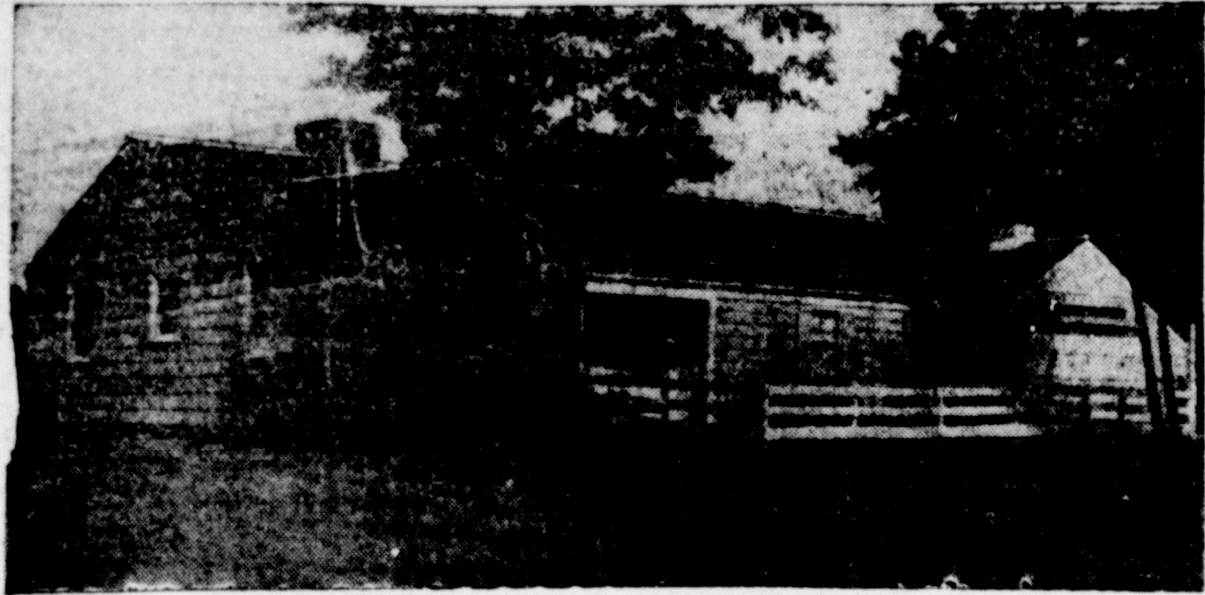

TRY FERTILENE THIS WAY:
FOR CORN: Spray Fertylene . . . 2 to 3 gallons to the acre when your corn reaches 8 to 12" high. Your second application should be applied when the corn is 3 feet high. Just try Fertylene . . . The ease and results will amaze you.

FOR SOY BEANS: Spray Fertylene . . . 2 to 3 gallons to the acre when plants reach height of 6 to 10". Apply second booster spray a week before crop starts to blossom. Once you try Fertylene . . . you . . . as thousands of other farmers . . . will never be without it.

Building Ideas For Home Owners

Rooms Seven
Bedrooms Three Closets Five
Cubage 32,000
Dimensions 66' x 32'

Measuring 66' x 32', "The Francis" has a cubage of 32,000 feet. An 80' minimum lot is recommended for building the house and attached garage.

A clapboarded exterior, as in the illustration, carries out the simple architectural lines of this type of house and would be particularly ideal if "The Francis" is to be built in the country, or in a suburban residential area.

The recessed porch offers weather protection to visitors to "The Francis." There is no entry hall included in this plan, for the front door opens directly into the large, attractively planned living room. The fireplace in the back wall and the beautiful picture window in the front wall, facing the porch, are the two focal points of interest in this living room, and to them goes much of the credit for the charm of this 20' x 13 1/4" room.

Reached by a door from the living room as well as by one from the hallway, the den or bedroom contains one window looking out on the front yard. Measuring 11' x 10' this room contains a large closet in the corner where the front wall joins the right wall.

With equal ease this room can be used as a den or bedroom; if preferred you could reserve it for overnight or week-end guests. The attached lavatory makes the room especially suitable as a guest bedroom.

Long and narrow, 12'6" x 9' in dimensions, the kitchen is carefully planned to save the housewife's precious steps. The working counters, with cabinets, above and below, are arranged in a U-shape extending from the doorway to the utility room, in the right wall, along the back wall and up to the entry to the breakfast nook in the left wall.

Actually a room by itself, the breakfast nook can also be used for family luncheons or early suppers for the youngsters; thus saving the dining room for more formal occasions.

and the garage, connected by the central hallway.

Utility Room

A bright, cheerful room receiving light and ventilation through two windows and three doors, the laundry utility room is 11' x 9' in measurements. Direct access is provided to the back yard.

The porch, which can be screened or glassed in, if desired, is located next to the laundry. It measures 12' x 7' and since it is at the back of the house, this porch could easily be used as an outdoor sleeping room.

Since the laundry is located in a first floor utility room in "The Francis," the only "must" installation in the basement, is the heating equipment. This should be placed under the living room. Thus, in this plan you'll have plenty of basement space to use as you see fit.

May Use Heart And Lungs Of Monkeys To Save Babies

NEW YORK (AP)—Transplanting a monkey's heart and lungs to a human baby may be tried within a year, a surgeon predicted today.

The money heart and lungs would become temporary spares. They would sit on the outside of the baby's body and be connected to the infant's arteries and veins to bypass his own heart and lungs.

They would pump his blood and do his breathing while surgeons opened the baby's heart to repair congenital defects which cannot be touched now.

This prospect is one of a number of bold developments described to the American College of Surgeons. Dr. Emanuel Marcus, of the Chicago Medical School, told of the monkey-baby possibility.

a symbol of the weakness of her moral and intellectual struggle."

In 1952 about 11 million people worked on U. S. farms which is estimated to be about 300,000 less than in 1951.

MORE STEALING IS PREDICTED

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J. (AP)—Statistics show that dishonest employees will dip into the U. S. business till to the tune of 500 million dollars in the next year and spend it on slow horses and fast women.

The man behind the figure is Harold O. Molitor, sales manager of the Continental Casualty Co. of Chicago which checks into thefts and embezzlements.

Molitor told a business conference sponsored by the Life Office Management Association on Monday night that losses "have increased sharply during the past two years and ... are far from reaching their peak."

Here, according to Molitor, is a jallbird's eye view of the average embezzler:

Ninety-three per cent are men 35 years of age who have been on the job six years and five months without so much as palming a penny.

Molitor said most of the stolen money goes for horse race bets, fast females and fancy living.

The common cold, according to another speaker, Dr. Floyd M. Green of Columbus, O., costs American industry 325 million man days and 13 1/2 billion dollars every year.

WATCHERS ARE AMAZED AT PEP OF OLD AUTOS

Residents of the York Springs area who lined the highway to watch the antique automobiles of the 1952 Glidden Tour pass south on Route 15 for Gettysburg and Washington, D. C., Tuesday morning were amazed to see some of these old cars "make" the steep hill south of York Springs with apparent ease and at a good pace. One of the ancient cars pulled out and passed a modern tractor-trailer loaded with new cars.

E. J. Leap, Hyndman, Pa., broke down two miles south of York Springs in his 1908 Buick which last year won a trophy in the tour. A magneto arm broke and later Mr. Leap had trouble with the carburetor float. Repairs were made by Mel Winters, York, who was attached to the tour with a mobile repair shop, and Mr. Leap was on his way again at 4 o'clock in an attempt to reach Washington before 7 p.m., the deadline to be eligible for prizes.

William Davis, a recent patient at the Warner Hospital, Gettysburg, has been discharged and returned to his home in York Springs.

Teletype Used

A 13-state teletype message was sent out by the Pennsylvania State Police recently to notify Charles G. Hershey of the death of his brother, Quincy W. Hershey, of York Springs. Mr. Hershey was vacationing at Nantucket, Mass., with his son, Capt. C. G. Hershey, and family, and had sent word to his sister, Mrs. Harold A. Smith, York Springs, that they would leave Monday and would probably reach York Springs Wednesday evening or Thursday morning. His brother's death took place on Monday and the services were to be held on Wednesday. They arrived Tuesday evening at York Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Ross Baird, Exeter, N. H., were guests last week of Mr. and Mrs. Harold A. Smith. They came to attend the funeral of their uncle, Quincy W. Hershey, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Cashman, York Springs, announce the birth of a daughter at the Carlisle Hospital on September 20, Mrs. Cashman was Miss Ethel Byers of Dillsburg.

Mr. and Mrs. George Murtorf spent the weekend in Lancaster with Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Helsey.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bream, Gardners R. D., announce the birth of a daughter on Thursday, September 18, at the Carlisle Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Rosser Wickline of Heidlersburg announce the birth of son at the Gettysburg Hospital on Sunday, September 20.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Stevens of Five Points at the Hanover Hospital on Tuesday, September 22.

Mrs. Roberts Hinkle was admitted to the Gettysburg Hospital on Friday for surgery.

Attend Bloomsburg Fair

A large group of local people left this morning with the Wolf's Bus Tours to attend the Bloomsburg Fair. Among them were Curtis Golden, Mrs. William Leier, Mrs. Richard Hinkle, Mrs. Elmer Hikes, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Trostle, Esther LaRue, Mr. Nell, Mrs. Paul Lehman, Scott Plank, Charles Lobough, Wert Emlet, Joel Griest Sr., all of York Springs and vicinity, and Mrs. and Mrs. Shirley and Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Lehman, of near Clear Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold A. Smith visited their brother-in-law, Howard Snyder, in York on Tuesday. Mr. Snyder is critically ill. Mrs. Smith's brother, Charles G. Hershey, returned to his home in Pittsburgh on Tuesday.

Bruce Naugle, Pittsburgh, spent last week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John F. Naugle, York Springs. The York Springs Woman's Christian Temperance Union will meet at the home of Mrs. Calvin Leier on Friday evening, September 26. The topic is "Abstinence or Alcoholism."

Mrs. William Lukehart, St. Thomas, Pa., and son, Billy, visited her sister, Mrs. M. S. Hershey, York Springs. Their father, H. T. Boarts, Greensburg, was a recent guest.

Mrs. Robert Freed, Harrisburg, spent two days last week with her niece and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Baird Hershey.

Leave For Philadelphia

Mrs. Charles Wolfe of Linwood, Pa., recently visited with her mother, Mrs. Charles Gartman in York Springs, and with her sisters, Mae Gochenour and Mrs. Hollis Muller. Recent dinner guests of Mrs. Muller and Capt. Hollis Muller Jr. were Col. and Mrs. Joseph B. Coolidge of Carlisle Barracks.

Dr. and Mrs. Senora Humberto Barria and family, of Bogota, Colombia, S. A., who have been spending the last several weeks with their brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Guillermo Barria, York Springs, left on Tuesday for their temporary home in Philadelphia, where Dr. Barria will spend the next year studying at the Graduate School of Medicine of the University of Pennsylvania. On Saturday they were guests, together with Mr. and Mrs. Guillermo Barria, of Mr. and Mrs. Donald M. Swope, Gettysburg, and on Sunday they dined with Dr. and Mrs. C. H. Johnson, Gettysburg, and Col. and Mrs. Ursin, Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Howland of Shippensburg spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Harold A. Smith.

Local residents will find that the best detour to Dillsburg is to turn left at Worley's Nursery and follow the mountain road through Lattimore. It is closed at Beavertown but a left turn on the road to the Camp Ground will bring the motorist out on the official detour again just north of Dillsburg. The regular temporary route via Franklintown is narrow, winding and hazardous for the heavy traffic now uses it.

Enrolls In College

Caroline Snyder, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clay Snyder, Gardners R. D., has matriculated at Gettysburg College and started her freshman year. She is a graduate of the York Springs High School.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Howe and sons, Hanover; Mrs. Spencer Snyder and W. Clifford Snyder, York Springs, were among those who attended the Dean-Nair nuptials in Washington recently. The Snyders spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. William W. Cohen of Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Griest, York Springs, are entertaining Mrs. W. W. Headley, of Clarksburg, W. Va.,

12 Dillsburg Women At Allenberry Meet

On Thursday the Pennsylvania Federation of Women's Clubs, Southeastern District Conference, was held at the Allenberry Inn, Boiling Springs. About 180 delegates from various counties in the district attended, including 12 delegates from Dillsburg.

The morning session was devoted to the Federated Workshop, directed by state chairmen of various departments. At the close of the workshop a reception for state officials was held on the lawn, followed by a luncheon at the Allenberry Inn. Mrs. Redmond Davis, of the Shippensburg Junior Woman's Club, sang two selections, accompanied by Mrs. James C. Weaver, Shippensburg Senior Woman's Club. At the afternoon session Mrs. Herbert Anderson, of Philadelphia, spoke on the importance of women in government, emphasizing the need for more interest and better turnout by women at elections.

Mrs. Paul Koenig, state historian, was another speaker. The conference was closed by the message of Mrs. Arthur P. Vincent, president of the Pennsylvania Federation of Women's Clubs. She brought out the club's themes for this year, "Learning, Living, Working Together," and stressed a return to our American heritage with emphasis on Americanism. Mrs. Vincent also urged a more factual education of our youth, and importance of the "three R's." Next year the conference will be held at York.

15 Dillsburg High Grads In Colleges

Fifteen graduates of Dillsburg High School are attending colleges this fall. They are: Ann Seibert, Richard Gochenaur, Kenneth McCurdy, all graduates of the Class of 1952 and all entering their Freshman year at Drexel Institute of Technology; Dolores Knaub, 1951, Janet Binner, 1951, and Evelyn Edgar, 1949, attending Millersville State Teachers College; Jay Knisely, 1952, Nancy Krall, 1951, and Milton Forry Jr., 1948, attending Gettysburg College; Lavere Weigert, 1949, Franklin and Marshall; Martin Trostle, 1947, Bonebrake Theological Seminary; Polly Krall, 1949, Wilson College; Marian Hess, 1951, Lebanon Valley College; Joyce Lerew, 1951, Elizabethtown College, and Robert Reasey, 1951, Messiah College, Grantham, Pa.
